Dedication

MRS. SUSAN SMITH

Although not a teacher by degree or profession the school secretary devotes her time not only to the superintendent, principal, school board and balancing of the books, but to many others and many other things. She assists the teachers in numerous ways. She assists the students, the class officers, visitors and the other many people who venture to the school. She is also a great boost to the Tiger Spirit.

Her outstanding character, personality and understanding are more reasons the Class of 1969 wish to dedicate this yearbook to Susan Smith.

Senior Class History

The M.S.C.S. streamlined special gave a shrill blast as it rounded the bend into Morning Sun central station. Waiting eagerly for their first train ride were ten little girls and nine young boys. A very pretty hostess, Mrs. Rabedeaux, tenderly helped each little traveler climb on board to start on a trip that would make thirteen all too brief stops before they would come to the end of their trip. As each name was called out, each child was now a student and took his place; Becky Borgstrand, Jane Brown, Louise Daniels, Kay DeYarmen, Jeanne Dill, Georgeann Griffith, Pamela Keltner, Patricia McClure, Carolyn Ogle, Janet Walker, Rex Berkhoff, Dennis Callahan, Johnny Haight, Michael Hamilton, Lawrence Hudson, Mickey Johnson, Steve Kellogg, Michael Minnis and David Nichols.

A very friendly lady conductor, Mrs. Beck and two little girls, Irene Giberson and Mary Jane Robb, joined our train and we were bound for the second stop along our route. When the whistle blew again we could see waiting at the station, Mrs. DeYarman and a new little girl Barbara Smith. This is where Carolyn Ogle, Michael Smith, James Nichols and Jan Nichols left our train. Dennis Hartman, Robert Knight and Destiny Calvin added three more boys to climb on board. Taking tickets and handing out report cards now was Mrs. Hetherington.

Before we had reached the next stop, Jane Brown, Rex Berkhoff and Johnny Haight were ready to get off and three newcomers arrived, Howard Innes, Jerry Lowe and Chester Jones. All on board for the next stop were fourth graders, who were carefully disciplined by Mrs. Brown. Our trip was saddened by the death of Brian McAllister. When the next station came into view a new conductor, a Mrs. Caldwell took charge. Barbara Smith and Chester Jones left the train as Jean Harris came on.

Mrs. McElhinney was calling roll now and six girls and eleven boys answered present. This included a new girl Sandy McCune and a boy Randy Richardson. Three girls and one boy left our train at the next stop. Louise Daniels, Jean Harris, Mary Jane Robb and Jerry Lowe.

About three quarters of the way to our destination, four more passengers boarded and two stepped off the train. Only four more stops before the M.S.C.S. special comes to the end of its run. Somewhere between those stops, Freshmen turned Sophomores and Juniors became sophisticated Seniors.

Now the end of the line is in view and fourteen high school students are ready to step off as graduates. Six girls and eight boys reached the end of their journey. Ten of group made the entire trip straight through. They include Jeanne Dill, Georgeann Griffith, Pamela Keltner, Patricia McClure, Dennis Callahan, Lawrence Hudson, Mickey Johnson, Steven Kellogg, Michael Minnis and David Nichols. Diane Pulse, Larry Tisor, Leslie Edwards and Sandy McCune complete the fourteen travelers.

It was a happy journey, full of work and fun. Now we board another train leaving here, to destinations unknown, so grant us journeying mercies.

"Class of 69"

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of "69" being of sound mind and body 69% of the time will the following--

I, Denny Callahan, will to Joe Stotlar my amazing ability of always being on time for dates.

We, the Senior class, will to the Junior class a new set of paint brushes and an easel so they can practice their painting before next Halloween.

I, Larry Hudson will to Dan Earnest a mirror so he can see oncoming cars under the viaduct.

We, the senior physics class will Mr. Allen a new box of fuses, and a set of nerves to replace the ones we've blown this year.

I, Pam Keltner, will to Ann Dean my position on the basketball bench and a large piece of foam to protect her posterior from splinters!

I, Mick Johnson will Darren Delzell my ability to take his mother's advice and make a few trips to Mediapolis.

We, the senior shop class will to Sergeant Fisher the rank of Lieutenant, and a purple heart for action beyond the call of duty.

I, Larry Tisor, will to all the underclassmen my good sense, for owning a Ford.

I, Mike Minnis, will to Doug Buster my wrestling weight class in hopes that he will yet wrestle beneath his natural weight.

We, Denny Callahan, and Mick Johnson, will to Joyce Blair, Marcia Swanson, and Becky Bryant our ability to get along with Mediapolis girls.

We, the Senior football players will to the Junior football players our amazing ability to remain high in spirits even when defeat was inevitable.

I, Steve Kellogg will to Dan Earnest my ability to get a long term loan on watermelon during the fair.

I, Les Edwards, will to John Griffin a sponge to mop up his spills as I hear that stuff he consumes is pretty expensive.

I, Denny Callahan, will to Neal Kerr one pair of suspenders so that next time he jumps in PE and someone has ahold of his shorts they won't fall down.

I, Dave Nichols, will to Ron McDonald my favorite chair at home in spite of the fact he uses it more than I do anyway.

We, the Senior boys will Harold Boline and Dennis Hartman 16 afternoon passes for when they never come back after dinner.

I, Les Edwards, will to Danny Earnest, Joe Stotlar, Doug Buster, and John Griffin, my ability to stay out of trouble in mixed chorus.

I, Larry Tisor, will the Juniors my great study habits and Pray that they pass.

I, Dave Nichols, will to Stanley Garnsey a marked deck in case he gets into any more heated card games under sewer creek bridges.

We, Mike Minnis and Dave Nichols will to John Griffin our ability to get along with the local law enforcement officer.

I, Dave Nichols will to the football players in the Junior class my ability to get along with the referees on and off the field.

I, Sandy McCune will Mrs. Hewitt a new assistant so she may hear all the school gossip next year.

We, Pam, Mick, Denny, George, Jeanne, and Steve will to Miss Bacon, one year's supply of red ink pens because surely her pens must be dry by now.

I, Jeanne Dill, will to Barb, Harold, Dennis H., Danny Crow, Stanley, Rick, and Pat H. each a nice soft pillow so their 6th hour snoozes will be more comfortable next year.

We, Dave, Steve, Pam, Pat, George, Jeanne and Dianne will the class of 1970 one hayrack in case any unknown robbers steal theirs next year.

I, Georgeann Griffith will to Joyce Blair a can of hairspray in hopes that she will share it with the rest of the basketball girls.

I, Pam Keltner, will to Cindy Fletcher a great big box of Sweet Tarts and hope that she gets a pucker out of them.

We, Pam, Jeanne, and George, will Joyce Blair a can of Magic Defroster Spray so she will know when people are approaching her date's car.

We, Jean, George, Pat, and Pam will Barb Anderson our ability to keep quiet in chorus.

George, Pam, Jeanne, and Sandy will our ability to sneak out after dates to talk about what "we got" to all the other Junior girls.

We George, Pat, Pam, and Jeanne will the basketball girls a large can of deodorant so they won't have to take showers next year.

We, the Senior Girls will Vicki Byerly a piece of elastic to hold up her slip.

We, Jeanne and Patty will Mr. Caldwell Mickey's ability to be on time for class.

I, Dianna, will to Barb Anderson one tube of Ultra-Brite toothpaste for sex appeal.

I, Pat McClure, will to Teresa Callahan my ability to get along with Wapello boys, despite adverse remarks.

I, Pat McClure will to Linda, Joyce, Vicky, Teresa, Ann, and Marcia my ability to keep track of my clothes at state.

We, the Seniors will Miss Bacon some senioritis in hopes that next year's Senior play will be produced.

I, Steve Kellogg, will Mark Mabeous the map that Cindy gave me so that he can find Burlington.

I, Mike Minnis, will to Ron Samuels my lightening speed in hopes that next time he will fly over the shot put holes.

We, Dave Nichols and Steve Kellogg will to the Junior boys our ability to get through Mike's coin tossing ability.

I, Larry Hudson will to Dennis Nollen my ability to get along with Mr. Edelbrock.

We, the senior class will to Mr. Howard our great self control to make it through the whole class period.

I, Mike Minnis will Dennis Nollen my ability always to have a full tank of gas in hopes that he will not have to siphon it from disabled Corvairs.

We, the Senior Football boys will Mr. Knaus all our Bloody jerseys, broken Helmets, and one more playbook to make his set of thirty complete.

We, the Senior Football boys will Percy a fire proof interior for his car and a built-in cooler for the trunk.

I, Mick Johnson will Jeff Smith and Joe Stotlar my worn out set of sure go mud tires which they will need with all their trips to Mediapolis.

We, Denny Callahan and Mick Johnson will Mel Baird our amazing ability with figures. (All kinds of figures.)

We, the Senior class will to Mr. Allen and Mr. Ewing a new set of school rules because the first and last good class is leaving!

Senior Class Prophecy

The year is 1989
I've returned once again to this town of mine.
Twenty years have passed and gone
So I thought I'd see how my classmates got on.
I wandered around old MS some
Till I saw a sight quite awesome.
The name of Mickey Millard Johnson.
It was not the name, but the place
Where I saw good old Mickey's face.
Mickey was the lawyer now,
Failures in government didn't discourage him anyhow.
The thing that really had me awed
Was that Mickey was completely Bald.
When you find Mickey, Denny is near,
So I wasn't surprised when I saw him appear.
The News-Herald is now in new hands
Denny Callahan is now the Editor-man.
But Denny has changed, no doubt about that
As a matter of fact, he has grown quite fat.
He tipped the scales at 493.
A guy of that size is something to see.
Old Doc Carleton's sign was gone
So I wondered who the people counted on
To crack their back and cure their ills.
I found Doc Hudson was dispensing pills.
The doctor was a very busy man
He had 14 kids to keep in hand.
Doc told me a story, I'll not deny it
He said Les Edwards was the world's oldest private.
It seems that Les had been drafted one day
Even his mother couldn't keep Uncle Sam away
Les hadn't worked hard, that was no surprise,
We never considered him one of the ambitious guys.
The dog catcher was a sight to behold,
She had a good "bod" or so I was told.
With a spaniel, a poodle, and a dog like a wiener
Pat was a shock, you should have seen her.
Who hired this dog catcher, I wanted to know.
The mayor's was the next face to show.
It seemed that Jeanne had won the election
I guess the town made a good selection.
The sign on the Cooley Emporium was changed

And I wondered how this had been arranged.
They told me that Drew had decided to leave
So they sold the store to good old Steve.
Steve still sells PLAYBOY under the shelf
But he keeps the center-fold for himself.
Who was running the post office, I wanted to see
It was no one else but Georgeann G.
She worked hard at the post office only for money
To support 16 kids and the guy she called, "Honey".
And Entertainment was no longer neglected
So a few night spots, I selected
The Playboy Club in old MS
Was the thing that shocked me best
I thought my Fresca must have been spiked
Because instead of Hugh Hefner, I saw Mike.
This small town life had done him no harm
He had a blonde and a brunette under each arm.
I'd always thought Mike was kind of shy
But he turned out to be a real movin' guy.
Mike's was not the only spot in town
There were several others farther down.
Exotic dancers were the rage
Even in this late age.
Although, modesty was excessive
The performance was not oppressive.
These dancers with beads and bangles grand
Turned out to be Sandy and Dianne.
In this time the boys, one and all
Gathered at the local pool hall.
The pool hall is no longer run by Pete.
Dave Nichols runs this pool hall sweet.
Dave always has a fit,
If anyone on his floor, should spit!
I knew "Bedcheck" had left the town
But, that old blue truck was cruising 'round.
When I saw its driver, my heart nearly stopped
I'd never imagined Larry Tisor, a cop.
This prophecy's over
I've said enough.
If you want anymore
You can write your own stuff!

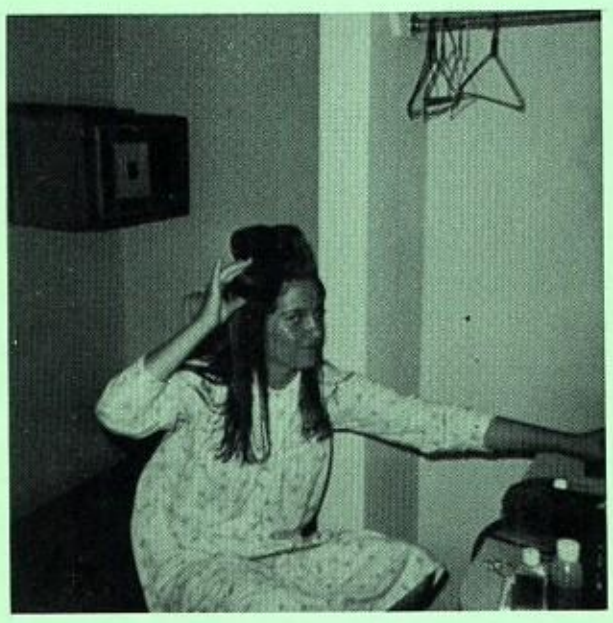
Colorful Colorado

Two's company!

Sorry, gang, only two!

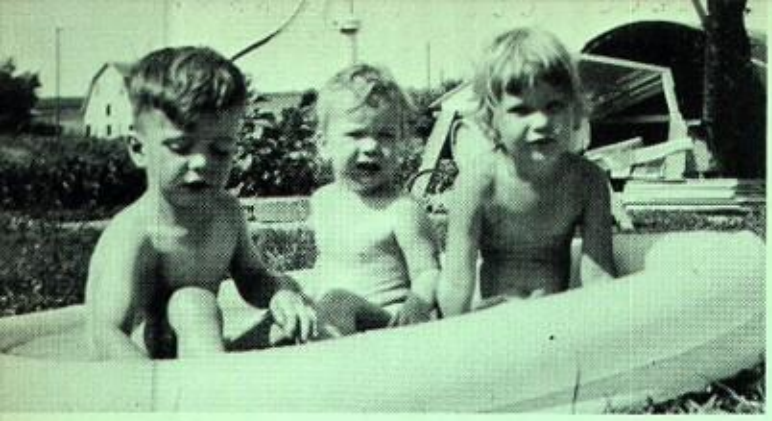


Miracle-making time!

Sure piled deep, isn't it!

Can't see much that way!

Sure hate to go home!



Look guys, topless!

Watch out snipes! Here comes Dave!

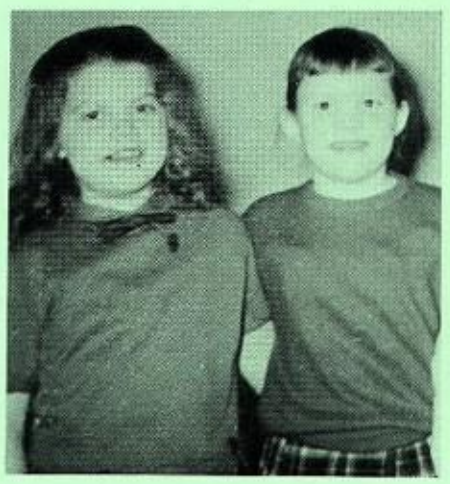
Stepin' out, huh, Goerge!

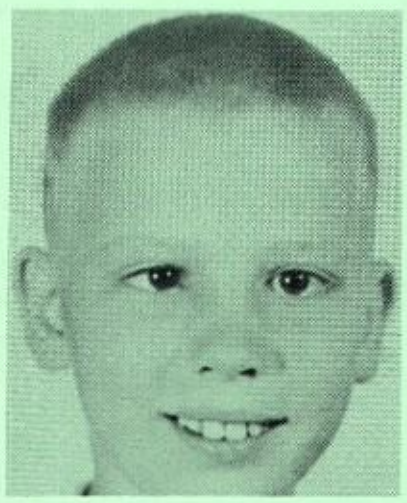
Smile purty, Diane!

In a hurry, Sandy?

Somebody loves me!

Ain't we sweet?





Such Innocence!

Everytime you break one, they kick back

Superintendent

Superintendent Ewing started his college career at a church school called Tarkio College in Missouri, where he received his A.B. degree in Economics. He received his Master of Science degree in Business Administration training in Boulder, Colo. Mr. Ewing's school administration training was at the University of Missouri in Kansas City. Mr. Ewing is now attending summer sessions at Denver University in Denver, Colo. working towards a "Doctorate".

Mr. Ewing taught Business Education as well as being the athletic coach in all sports at Tribune, Kansas.

Mr. Ewing also coached one year at Dighton, Kansas.

Mr. Ewing was with Trans World Airlines in Kansas City, Missouri five years working in the Personnel Department as Employer Relations Coordinator for the western division.

He was superintendent of schools at Cooper, Carson, Fonda, and Tabor, Iowa. He was also superintendent of Schools at Community Unit #115 at Oquawka, Ill. for two years, before coming to Morning Sun.

Superintendent Ewing's philosophy, "Individual Instruction in accordance with Individual Ability," is reflected in his administration wherever he has been.

Administration

Principal

Mr. Wayne D. Allen has served as principal of the Morning Sun High School since 1965, previously, from 1929 to 1947.

Mr. Allen received his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1924 from the University of Iowa. He later did graduate work at the University of Iowa and Iowa Wesleyan.

Mr. Allen taught at Wayland from 1924 to 1929 before he came to Morning Sun. He was superintendent of the Morning Sun School from 1929 to 1947. He was editor of the Morning Sun News Herald before he returned to Morning Sun to be principal.

Mr. Allen teaches physics and is also the Senior Class sponsor.

Mr. Allen deserves many thanks for his very helpful guidance and counseling from the class of '69.

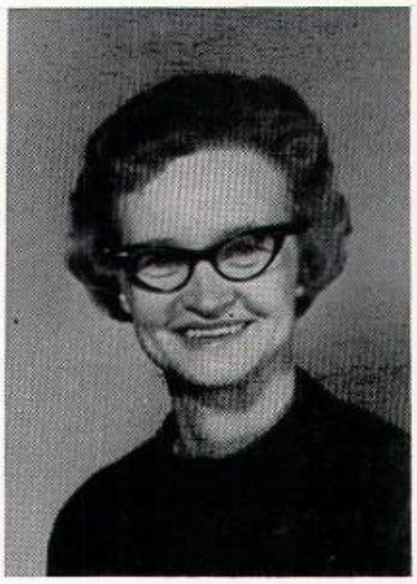
School Board

Secretary

Mrs. Smith was busy this year trying to balance the senior class treasury, typing the Announcements, selling paper and pencils, and reminding people to pay their bills. Mrs. Smith is one of the people who keeps Morning Sun School an orderly and balanced institution.

School Nurse



Mrs. Gerrie Wolfe was busy this year trying to keep 325 students healthy. She encountered broken bones, cuts, stomach aches, sore throats, acid burns, and that old headache excuse. Mrs. Wolfe worked in both the high school and the grade school this year.

Prom '69

KING STEVE & QUEEN SANDY

Highlighting the spring of 1969 was the Junior-Senior Prom, "The Rain, The Park, and Other Things." On May 10, the lunchroom had been transformed into a park, complete with fountain and swings. The banquet, which was prepared by the Junior's mothers, was followed by a program which consisted of: Rain-Ron Samuels, Don't Mind the Rain-Mr. Ewing, Raining Memories-Jeanne Dill, Over the Rainbow, (History)-Denny Callahan, Precipitation Predicted (Prophecy)-Pam Keltner, and Sunshine and Showers (Will)-Mick Johnson. After the banquet everyone enjoyed dancing to the music of the Apricot Anarchy. As the clock struck twelve, everyone left for parties with memories of a delightful evening.

The singing Playmates, who also waited on tables were Carolyn Hamilton, Ann Harbison, Pennie Kerr, Mary Nichols, Connie Thomas, Shirley Strawhacker, Nick Hobbs, Kim Hewitt, Raymond Delzell, Doug Lee, Jeff Wilkerson, and Leonard Biggerstaff.

Homecoming '68

King and Queen candidates wait in suspense as the Coronation of the 1968 King and Queen were commencing. From left to right are: Mickey Johnson, Pam Keltner, Denny Callahan, Georgeann Griffith, Steve Kellogg, and Jeanne Dill. After the Coronation, Queen Jeanne and King Denny led the Homecoming Parade. At 7:30 the mighty Tigers came out on the field to face their opponents the Highland Huskies. After a hard-fought game, the Tigers and their fans assembled at the Homecoming Dance where the Daybreakers were already "belting out a few hits". As the clock struck twelve the Homecoming festivities came to an end.

Queen

Jeanne

The Homecoming Queen for this year was Jeanne Dill, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Dill. Her senior activities were senior class president, basketball, band president, and also Band Queen, newspaper, and yearbook staff. Her subjects were Government, Sociology, American Lit., Advanced Grammar, and Typing.

King

Denny

The Homecoming King for this year was Denny Callahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Callahan. His senior activities were student council, football, basketball, newspaper editor, and yearbook editor. His subjects were Government, Senior Math, Bookkeeping, and American Lit.

RON McDONALD

Ron McDonald with a state championship at 103 pounds, and Nick Hobbs, third in the 120 pound class, boosted the Morning Sun Tigers to a third place in the Class A wrestling meet at Waterloo. McDonald's championship is only the second in Tiger history and one of the few registered by wrestlers from southeast Iowa.

The Sunner junior gained a place in the state meet through the default of an Iowa City entrant.

Ron won his first two matches handily but was trailing 4-0 in the final match when he exhibited the last period kick that has carried him to wins during the season.

Hobbs, who has been a skilled performer all season, disposed of his first opponent then ran into a last years champion and as a senior one of the most formidable opponents in the Class A meet. But through the failure of his consolation opponent to make weight Nick was declared the winner of third place.

The sparkling performance of the Tiger twins in the state meet closed a fine season for the Morning Sun grapplers.

Coach of the Year

Morning Sun high school's basketball coach, Bob Nelson was honored by fellow coaches in the Southeast Iowa and Western Illinois, by being voted the Hawk-Eye's 1969 Coach of the Year.

Nelson, in his third year of coaching, gained a reputation as a tournament coach. In the last two years, the Tigers have pulled off major upsets and have advanced to the district tournaments.

In Nelson's seasons at the helm, Morning Sun has won 41 games and lost 18. The Tigers shared the Southeast Iowa Conference title with Mediapolis and New London, Nelson's first year. They were second the past season and third the year before.

Nelson attributes his tournament record "more to the attitude of the ball club than myself."

First place on the homecoming float "Launching Into A Victory" gave the sophomores a feeling of achievement at the year's beginning. To add to the class treasury the sophomores sold stationery. The choice of class rings was the next big project. The subjects offered were English II, World History, Typing, Spanish, Algebra II, Math 10, Biology, Shop II, and Home Economics II.

Twenty-seven freshmen began their long journey at M.S.H.S. The welcoming went hand in hand with the annual signing party in the fall. The freshmen were limited as to the subjects offered to them. They were required to take Algebra I or General Math, English, General Science or Earth Science and Shop I for the boys and Home Ec. for the girls. To help replenish their treasury the freshmen sponsored a dance. Every "little" bit helps. Right?
